ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on its own motion and a Motion to Stay, (Doc. No. 9), filed by counsel for Petitioner.

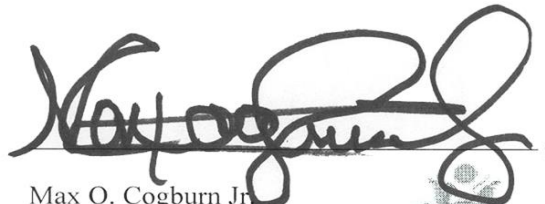

The Court ordered the parties to file a Response indicating why this matter should not proceed based on the United States Supreme Court's decision in United States v. Davis, No. 18-431. Counsel for Petitioner has filed this Motion to Stay pending the Fourth Circuit's decision in United States v. Taylor, No. 19-7616 in which a certificate of appealability was granted, in part, on the issue of whether attempted Hobbs Act robbery categorically qualifies as a predicate crime of violence for purposes of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). Counsel for the Government consents to this Motion. (Doc. No. 9 at 2). The Court finds that the Motion to Stay is in the interests of justice and judicial economy and will be granted.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that:

1. Petitioner's Motion to Stay, (Doc. No. 9), is GRANTED.
2. This case is held in abeyance pending the Fourth Circuit's consideration of Taylor, No. 19-7616. The Government shall have 60 days following the Fourth Circuit's issuance of its mandate in Taylor file an answer, motion, or other response to the § 2255 Motion to Vacate.
